

Doug Fisher
Executive Director Strategic Procurement, ExxonMobil

As Executive Director Strategic Procurement, Doug is responsible for Procurement's global safety, controls, planning, training, bidding centers, analytics, sourcing & acquisition processes as well as supplier diversity, local content and sustainability.

Doug began his career with Exxon Company, U.S.A. in 1990. He moved through a number of Supply Chain and Acquisition positions before being assigned to Esso International Purchasing and Contracting in Brussels, Belgium as an International Purchasing Advisor. Upon his return to the U.S. in 1996, Doug was assigned to the Financial Analysis & Reporting division.

From 2000 to 2004, Doug performed a number of roles supporting the Exxon and Mobil merger including Infrastructure Projects, Recruiting, Operations & Planning, Manufacturing Sourcing and Operational Excellence. Doug returned to Houston in 2004 in several roles including Global Local Content Manager, New Affiliates Manager and Chemical Acquisitions Manager before returning to Fairfax in 2009 as Planning & Reporting Manager. Doug relocated to Houston in 2012 as Equipment & Materials Sourcing Manager and then Chemical Procurement Manager before taking on his current role in Strategic Procurement.

Doug currently serves on the board of the Women's Business Enterprise National Council and has served on a number of committees supporting the United Way of Greater Houston and Montgomery County.

Doug graduated with honors from The Pennsylvania State University in 1990. Doug, his wife, Dawn, and their four boys (Nathan, Ryan, Devin and Justin) live in The Woodlands, Texas. His interests include spending time with his family, running and rock climbing. He currently serves as Committee Chair for the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 772 in North Houston.