

Richard Turner
Vice President - Renewables Development
El Paso Electric Company

Education

- University of Texas at El Paso, Master of Business Administration
- University of Texas at El Paso, Bachelor of Science – Electrical Engineering

Since joining El Paso Electric in 1988, Mr. Turner has served as a Resource Engineer in the Energy Resources and Planning group, Manager of Regulatory Compliance in the Regulatory Affairs area, Project Manager in the Corporate Projects Office, and Director and Vice President in the Corporate Development area. His utility experience of 29 years includes corporate and strategic planning, project management and controls, emerging technologies research and development, renewable resources and customer programs development, regulatory compliance and accounting, energy efficiency programs, resource planning, and fuels planning and administration.