

Eduardo Nunez, Project & Technology Manager, ExxonMobil

Mr. Nunez has 40 years of industry experience. He has developed his career with IBM Argentina in the engineering and marketing areas, and with ExxonMobil. After initial appointments as Information Systems and Procurement Manager in Esso, Argentina, he was transferred to Brussels, Belgium in 1995 as International Procurement Manager, and to Tokyo, Japan, in 1998 as Procurement Executive. In the USA since the year 2000, he has been appointed as Regional Procurement Manager for the Americas, General Manager of Global Procurement Operations, Global Contracting and Controls Manager, and, more recently, Projects and Technology Manager.

Eduardo earned B.S. / M.S. degrees in Electronic Engineering from the Buenos Aires Institute of Technology, and completed post-graduate studies in Oil & Gas Economics.

Eduardo was chairman of the board of the Houston Minority Supplier Development Council, member of the board of the Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, member of the Advisory Board of the Camara de Empresarios Latinos de Houston, member of the Greater Houston Partnership's Minority Partnership Task Force, member of the board of the Institute of Hispanic Culture of Houston, and President and Chairman of the House of Argentina in Houston. He is a graduate of the Center for Houston's Future and a Senior Fellow of the American Leadership Forum.